Following the Evidence in Child Exploitation Cases

May 16-17, 2019 | Ottertail, MN | Classroom

Examine the importance of multidisciplinary team (MDT) case coordination and evidence corroboration in the investigation of child abuse cases. Learn how to evaluate evidentiary findings through crime scene images, interviews and case studies. Understand multidisciplinary team members' roles and responsibilities for protecting child victims and offender prosecution.

No Fee

About

The deadline to register is Friday, April 19, 2019.

This 2-day training will focus on going beyond a child's word and seeking evidence to corroborate a child's statement. Various members of the Multi-Disciplinary Team, such as law enforcement, child protective services, and forensic interviewers may gather different or differing information. You will focus on evaluating evidentiary findings through crime scene images, interviews and case studies, and highlight the importance of working cooperatively with other disciplines for the benefit of child victims and the prosecution of offenders.

What's In It For You

Upon completion of this training, you will be able to:

- Describe the importance of minimizing bias and employing multiple hypotheses
- List types of evidence and methods of collection
- Define evidentiary keys of collected evidence
- Explain the importance of case information sharing
- Manage collected evidence

Is this training for you?

The following would benefit from this training:

- Law Enforcement
- Prosecutors
- Social Workers
- Tribes/Tribal Partners
- Victim Service Providers
